BPAKG SUMMARY

The quality of education, access to teachers, courses and books used to be determined by and limited to the geographic location. BPAKG transcends these boundaries and applies the benefits of distance learning and technology to allow students anywhere to access one immersive e-learning platform.

Technology has changed just about every field, including education. Digital learning is reshaping education in unprecedented ways and it's time to take the next step in adopting blockchain technology. It is enabling a new form of digital connection with people worldwide in the most direct and interactive way possible. This creates a learning experience of a new generation blending together the best of the real and digital worlds.

We are remaking the traditional education system by introducing a safe foundation for the facilitation of e-learning. By democratizing access to universally accepted certifications, degree, and educators' accessibility for wanted courses, we are creating a new standard for distance and e-learning. The use of a native token that powers the BPAKG ecosystem will become the basis for powerful intensification programs where participants earn Loyalty Tokens on completion of their courses. Earning these Tokens from the BPAKG platform can be converted into cash at the same time or after a gap when the Token conversion rate increases.
